

Regina March as

Appointment

Sole Trader

In the District Court of the Sixth Judicial District in and for Laramie County Nevada

In the matter of the application of Regina March to become a sole trader

This application came on regularly to be heard in open court on the 22nd day of May 1875, a regular day of the March term of said Court.

The Court finds as follows upon hearing duly read that Regina March the above named applicant is the wife of John A. March, that she is a resident of the County of Laramie and State of Nevada, that she is the mother of four minor children, that she has given due notice of the application by publishing and advertising notices thereof daily in the "Laramie Sentinel" (a daily public newspaper published in the County of Laramie aforesaid) from April 20th 1875 to May 21st 1875, inclusive, and that it is necessary to the welfare of said minor children that this application be granted.

Wherefore by reason of the premises it is ordered and adjudged and decreed that Regina March the above named applicant be authorized and empowered to carry on in her own name and upon her own account the business of keeping a hotel, restaurant, and lodging house, and of buying and selling real and personal property.

Dated May 22, 1875

D. J.

State of Nevada } ss
County of Laramie

I, Regina March, do, in the presence of Almighty God, truly and solemnly swear that this application is made in good faith for the purpose of enabling me to support myself and my children, and not with any view to defraud, delay or hinder any creditor or creditors of my husband, and that of the moneys to be used in said business, not more than five hundred dollars has come either directly or indirectly from my husband. So help me God.

Subscribed & sworn to before me this 22nd day of May A.D. 1875
