

Fred Loschenkohl } Location of Water Right

Notice is hereby given, that I, the undersigned, Fred Loschenkohl of Eureka County, State of Nevada, do hereby locate and appropriate all the water now running issuing and flowing or which may hereafter issue, or flow, or run from that certain spring situated in the County and State aforesaid and particularly described as being located about a half mile east from the Eureka and Hamilton Stage road at the head of a small gulch and about 500 yards north westerly from the Springs owned by The Atlas Mining Company being about $\frac{3}{4}$ of a mile from the Summit of the mountain. Said Spring was discovered and located by me June 1 1876 and is known as the Bernard Spring. I claim the right to divert and conduct the water from said Spring to any accessible point by means of ditches, flumes or other appliances in accordance with the laws of this State to be complied with hereafter and the rights and privileges which are guaranteed to first appropriators of water. I further claim and do hereby locate and appropriate a sufficient quantity of the Public Domain, in and around and about said Spring for the convenient use and enjoyment of the right herein claimed as laid out in map of Spring annexed hereto.
Eureka June 8. 1876.

Fred Loschenkohl.
