

H. J. J. MacLaughlin

Notice of forfeiture

Eureka County State of Nevada December 31st 1877

To Michael Sheese and A. S. MacKenzie. You are hereby notified that I owning the interest of Barney Collins, one of the original locators, have expended at least eighty dollars for each of the following years, in labor and improvements, upon the "Irish Ambassador" lode being 800 feet, situated in Secret Canyon Mining District and recorded in the records now in said district, in said county and State, as will appear by certificates filed 31st of December 1877 in the office of the Recorder of said county, in order to hold said premises under the provisions of section 2324 of the Revised Statutes of the United States, being the amount required to hold the same for the years ending 1875, 1876, 1877; and if within ninety days after this notice, by publication, you fail or refuse to contribute your proportion of such expenditure, as co-locators, your interest in said claim will become the property of the said subscriber, under said section 2324
