

G. W. Clark

To

B. Rothschild

Declaration of Trust & Interest

Know all men by these presents: Whereas on the fourteenth day of October A. D. 1878, A. D. Haskell and B. Rothschild did by Deed of Conveyance made and executed on said day, and duly acknowledged on the 16th day of October 1878, duly convey and transfer unto me certain mines and mining claims situate in Eureka Mining District, Eureka County Nevada, in said Deed more fully mentioned and fully described: And whereas the said Deed of said Mines and Mining Claims was so made and executed by the said A. D. Haskell and B. Rothschild for the purpose of vesting the title to the same in me, in trust, in order that said mines and property might be by me more conveniently managed and handled - Now therefore I do hereby declare and make known to all men that I hold the title to said mines and mining claims and property wholly in trust, and for the uses and purposes for which the same was conveyed. And I hereby declare and make known that the interest of the said B. Rothschild, and his legal representatives in said mines and property is an undivided one fourth interest in each and every of the said mines and mining claims in said Deed mentioned and described and so to me conveyed as aforesaid. And the said Rothschild, and his legal representatives, are entitled to have and receive a net One Fourth of any and all avails, money, stocks or other consideration that may arise or come to me or be by me received upon any sale or other disposition of said Mines Mining Claims and property, or any of them, whenever or wherever the same may be sold or disposed of. In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal this 18th day of October 1878.
