Agreement.

Association No.1908

MEMORANDUM OF NEVADA MARKETING AGREEMENT

The Producer undersigned has executed an agreement with The California Cattlemen's Association hereinafter called the Association whereby the exclusive and irrevocable power of sale of all cattle now or hereafter owned or controlled by the undersigned, is vested in the Association except as expressly cancelled in accordance with the terms thereof. The said Producer has therein created a lien in favor of the Association on all of said cattle to secure any sums that may become due thereunder, including an obligation to make payments toward the merchandising costs of the Association not to exceed 2% of the gross sales price. Such lien shall be subsequent to any lien granted in good faith for value prior to filing any suit by the Association to enforce the lien herein described. The agreement referred to is identical as to form with the standard form of agreement of the Association, series, 1924, recorded and available for examination in the usual manner in the office of the-----County of Eureka. The said cattle are located in the County of Eureka, Nevada and are, or will be, marked and branded with the following mark and brand recorded in accordance with law, to wit: F left hip  and also all other cattle now or hereafter owned by the Producer.

Dated this 17th day of Mar, 1925.
