TRUST DEED AND BILL OF SALE

THIS INDENTURE made this 31st day of August, 1934, between Flora Dean Hobart, widow, and Ethel Dean Hussey, widow, of San Mateo County, California, parties of the first part, Henderson Banking Company Mortgage Corporation, second party, and Reconstruction Finance Corporation, third party, Witnesseth:

WHEREAS, under date of March 17, 1932, Flora Dean Hobart mortgaged unto Henderson Banking Company the real and personal property hereinafter described, which said mortgage was filed for record in the office of the County Recorder of Lander County, Nevada, on March 25, 1932, and recorded in Book 1 of Real and Chattel Mortgages, page 367, and was recorded in the office of the County Recorder of Eureka County, Nevada, on April 9, 1932 in Liber A of Real and Chattel Mortgages, page 346, as security for an indebtedness owing from Flora Dean Hobart to said bank of Sixty Thousand Seven Hundred Dollars ($60,700.00), and to also secure moneys that might be advanced by said bank from time to time in the protection of the mortgaged property; and thereafter the said Henderson Banking Company borrowed from the third party, pursuant to its Application No. 1, a sum largely in excess of $60,700.00 and pledged as collateral therefor the said mortgage from the said Flora Dean Hobart to Henderson Banking Company and the note thereby secured, assignments of the said mortgage having been filed for record in the office of the County Recorder of Lander County on December 26, 1932, and recorded on page 402 of Book 1 of Real and Chattel Mortgages, and in the office of the County Recorder of Eureka County on December 29, 1932 in Liber A of Real and Chattel Mortgages, page 368, and

WHEREAS, prior to the date of the execution of said mortgage, Ethel Dean Hussey by deed conveyed to Flora Dean Hobart her right and title to the real property covered by said mortgage and in said deed of conveyance certain mistakes and omissions were made and contained in said conveyances, and

WHEREAS, the indebtedness from Flora Dean Hobart to said bank has been paid only to the extent of $4,134.90, the balance thereof, together with interest, being now over due, and the indebtedness from the said bank to the third party has not been paid and is now over due, and

WHEREAS, the said Henderson Banking Company, a corporation, has heretofore been judicially declared insolvent and all of its assets have been conveyed to the second party, and

WHEREAS, Flora Dean Hobart is anxious to avoid the expense of foreclosure and a deficiency judgment in the event that the property might at foreclosure sale fail to provide sufficient to pay the said indebtedness; and

WHEREAS, the said Ethel Dean Hussey is a sister of Flora Dean Hobart and is desirous that she shall be successful in settling the said indebtedness and is further desirous of correcting the misdescriptions contained in the former deed of conveyance from her to Flora Dean Hobart; and

WHEREAS, all parties concerned consider that on account of present economic conditions there is a strong probability that such sale probably would not yield sufficient to pay such indebtedness; and the said Flora Dean Hobart is unable to provide the necessary funds for operating expenses; and the second and third parties are desirous of avoiding expense of foreclosure; and all parties concerned are willing to agree that the said indebtedness from the said Flora Dean Hobart to the Henderson Banking Company, pledged as collateral as aforesaid with the third party, may be satisfied in full by the conveyance to the second party upon the trusts hereinafter set forth in favor of the third party;

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the satisfaction of the said indebtedness by the second and third parties, the first parties hereby grant, bargain, sell and convey unto the second party, its successors and assigns, in trust nevertheless upon the trusts hereinafter set forth, the following described real property situate in the Counties of Lander and Eureka, State of Nevada:
