8. Books of account shall be kept by said partners, and entries made therein of all moneys, goods, effects, debts, sales, purchases, receipts, payments, and all other transactions of the said partnership. 11. That the relation of partnership hereunder shall arise from the ownership of shares, or interests, in the mines, lodes, claims, equipment, or property brought into this partnership and the working or using of the same for the purpose of extracting minerals and ores; and not otherwise.

12. That a partner to this agreement shall share in the profits and losses thereof in the proportion which the interest or share he owns in the property bears to the whole partnership capital or whole number of shares.

13. That each member of this partnership shall have a lien on the partnership property for the debts due the creditors thereof, and for money advanced by him for its use.

advances made for the benefit of the partnership, unless he purchases in good fiath, for a valuable consideration, without notice of such liens.

17. That a purchaser of the interest of a partner in amine, when the partnership hereunder is engaged in working it, shall take with notice of all liens resulting from the relation of the partners to each other, and to the creditors of the partnership.

18. No member of this partnership, or other agent or manager thereof, can, by a contract in writing, or otherwise, bind the partnership, except by express authority derived from the members thereof in accordance with the terms and objects of this mining partnership agreement.

20. Incase of any disputes or differences ariseing under the terms of this partnership agreement, or the rights of the partners hereunder, this agreement shall be deemed to have been made, executed and delivered within the State of Nevada; and the rules and regulations as laid down by the mining laws and decisions of that State shall be binding upon the parties hereto, and this agreement shall be construed as a mining partnership for the aims and objects herein set forth; and the rights of the parties hereto shall not be controlled or determined by the laws of general or limited partnership.

21. The making, execution, acknowledging, recording, and filing of this mining partnership agreement shall not be construed as an invitation to creditors, or otherwise, to extend credit to the partnership by virtue of anything herein contained.
