

Beowawe Nevada. June 26th, 1937.

Mr. Peter. Merialdo,

Eureka, Nevada.

Dear Mr. Merialdo:

According to the news papers-Congress allows us prospectors an other years rest-Not having to do no assessment work on our mining claimes- The bankers of this state having used great fore sight in a cleaning most of us up financially years ago; Being thus blessed in not having to pay an income Tax-Entitling us fellowes to a moratorium on our mining claimes.

In view of the above- I do hereby claim exemption on the following mining claimes-Hills-Summit-Apex and the National-All being in the County of Eureka-S 27 T 31N
R 50 E.-M. D. M-Name of the Mining District-Rainy Day.

Inclose please find filing fee $1.25 to cover.

Yours Truly.

W. E. Miller,
