Chief, Patents Section.

No. 25.

THE UNITED STATES of America

To all to whom these presents shall come greeting:

Whereas, by the act of Congress approved July 1, 1862, as amended by the act of July 2, 1864, "to aid in the construction of a railroad and telegraph line from the Missouri River to the Pacific Ocean, and to secure to the Government the use of the same for postal, military, and other purposes," authority is given to the Central Pacific Railroad Company, "to construct a railroad and telegraph line" under certain conditions and stipulations as expressed in said acts; and provision is made for granting to the said company "every alternate section of public land designated by odd numbers, to the amount of ten alternate sections per mile on each side of the said railroad, on the line thereof, and within the limits of twenty miles on each side of said road" not sold, reserved or otherwise disposed of by the United States, and to which a Preemption or Homestead claim may not have attached at the time the line of said road is definitely fixed:"

And Whereas, an official statement bearing date November 3, 1869, from the Secretary of the Interior has been filed in the General Land Office showing that the Commissioners appointed by the President under provisions of the sixth section of the said act of Congress approved July 2, 1864, have reported to him that the line of railroad and telegraph from Sacramento in the State of California East-ward to the point of junction with the Union Pacific Railroad in Utah Territory and known as the Central Pacific Railroad Company, has been constructed and fully completed and equipped in the manner prescribed by the acts of Congress relative to the Pacific Railroad and Telegraph Line; and the Vice President of Said Central Pacific Railroad Company has applied for a conveyance of the title to the lands granted to said Company by the said acts of Congress of July 1, 1862, and July 2, 1864.

And Whereas, certain tracts have been selected, under the acts aforesaid, by Benjamin B. Redding the Agent for the Central Pacific Railroad Company, as shown by his original list of selections dated January 18, 1876, certified under date of March 2, 1876, by the Register and Receiver at

Elko, Nevada, the said tracts being described as follows, to wit:
North of base line and East of Mount Diablo, Meridian.

Township Thirty-two- Range Forty-nine.

West half of North East quarter of Section Twenty-nine.

Now, Know ye, That the United States of America in consideration of the premises and pursuant to the said acts of Congress, Have Given and Granted and by these presents Do Give and Grant unto the said Central Pacific Railroad Company, and to its assigns, the tracts of lands selected as aforesaid and described in the foregoing. Yet excluding and excepting from the transfer by these presents, All mineral Lands should any such be found to exist in the tracts described in the foregoing but this exclusion and exception according to the terms of the Statute "Shall not be construed to include Coal and Iron Lands."

To have and to Hold the said tracts with the appurtenances unto the said Central Pacific Railroad Company and to its assigns forever, with the exclusion and exception as aforesaid.

In Testimony whereof, I, Ulysses S. Grant, President of the United States, have caused these letters to be made patent and the Seal of the General Land Office to be hereunto affixed.

Given under my hand at the City of Washington, this fourteenth day of February in the year of Our Lord, one thousand, Eight hundred and seventy seven and of the Independence of the United States the one hundred and first.
