DECREE SETTling FINAL ACCOUNT OF ADMINISTRATER AND FINAL DISTRIBUTION

ROSE MOYLE, administratrix of the estate of EDWARD J. MOYLE, deceased, having on the 29th day of May, 1961, rendered and filed herein an account of her administration of said estate, which said account was for a final settlement, and having with said account filed a petition for the final distribution of said estate, and said account and petition this day coming on regularly to be heard, and proof having been made to the satisfaction of the court that the clerk had given notice of the settlement of said account and the hearing of said petition, in the manner and for the time required by law, the court finds:

1. That said account is in all respects true and corre ct, and that it is supported by proper vouchers; that the residue of money in the hands of the administrator at the time for filing said account was $ None .
2. That due and legal notice to creditors of said estate has been given in the manner and for the time required by law.
3. That all claims and debts against decedent and against said estate, and all debts, expenses and charges of administration have been fully paid and discharged and that said estate is ready for distribution and now in a condition to be closed.
4. That since the rendition of said account there has been received by said administ-rator the sum of $ None ; that the sum of $ None has been expended by her as necess-ary expenses of administration, the vouchers thereof, together with a statement of such expenses and disbursements are now presented and filed for settlement and allowance; that the estimated expenses of closing the estate will be $ None .
5. That the whole of said estate was community property of said decedent and your petitioner.
6. That said EDWARD J. MOYLE died intestate, leaving him surviving the following heirs who are entitled to share in the residue of said estate, as hereinafter described, remaining for distribution: Said estate as commuity property to go to surviving wife.

Name	Relationship
Rose Moyle	Wife
Jack Moyle	Son
