- It prior to discovery of any substances covered herein, Lessee should abandon operations thereon, or if after discovery of said substances the production thereon should cease from any cause, this lesse shall not terminate if Lessee commences additional or revorking operations within almost (90) der; thereafter or, if it be within the primary term, commences or resumes the payment or tender of rentals on or before the rental raying date next ensuing after the expiration of the date of shandonment of operations or cessation of production. If at the expiration of the primary term or substance covered herein is being produced from said land but Lessee is then engaged in operations of any character thereon, this lesse shall remain in force so long as operations are prosecuted with no cessation of more than thirty (30) consecutive days, and if they result in the production of any of the substances covered herein named above, so long thereafter as any substance covered herein is produced from said lands.
- 3. If Lessee completes any operation permitted hereunder on the leased premises capable of production of any such substances but is unable to sell the production therefrom, then on or before ninety (90), days after said operations are suspended for lack of a market determined by the Lessee to be economic, and thereafter on or before the anniversary date of the expiration of said 30-day period, each party holding acreage under this lease thall pay or tender to the parties entitled to royalities an advance annual royality (as a substitute for royality on annual production) equal to the amount of annual delay rentals above provided, for the acreage then held under this lease by the party making such payment or tender, and so long as said advance royality is so paid or tendered, this lease shall continue in full force and effect.
- 4. Payments or tenders of rental or advance royalty may be made by Lessee's check or draft mailed to Lessor at Lessor's post office address last known to Lessee, or delivered to Lessor, or mailed or delivered to the depository bank on or before the date of payment. The date of mailing of such check or draft shall be considered date of payment of such rentals or advance royalty. Should any depository bank cease to exist, suspend business, liquidate, fail, or be succeeded by another bank or for any reason fail or refuse to accept rental or advance royalty, Lessee shall not be in default for failure to make payment or tender until thirty [30] days after Lessor has delivered to Lessee a proper recordable instrument naming another bank as depository. The down cash payment is consideration for this lease according to its terms and shall not be allocated as mere refused.
