bought from Cooper Farms, we promise to pay to the order of Cooper Farms Twenty-four Thousand Five Hundred Dollars ($24,500.00) payable at Eureka, Nevada, with interest at the rate of six per cent (6%) per annum from date until paid and a reasonable attorney's fee and costs of collection in case payment shall not be made at maturity hereof.

The express condition of this transaction is such that the title and ownership and right of possession of the property described above shall remain in and shall not pass from the said Cooper Farms until this note and interest shall have been paid in full, and the delivery of said property at this time is subject to that condition. And it is further agreed that, should the maker hereof at any time before this note is fully paid, attempt to sell or otherwise dispose of the said property or to remove it from Eureka County, Nevada, without the written consent of the holder of this note or in case of default in any of the payments as above mentioned, then and in either case the holder of the note shall have the right to declare this note due and to take possession of said property wherever it may be found.

In case the said Cooper Farms shall take back possession of said property, the said Cooper Farms may sell the same at public or private sale without notice and apply the proceeds of such sale to the payment of the balance then due on this note, together with all costs of the taking and selling of said property, holding the residue, if any, subject to disposal of the maker hereof.
