(13) at the request of the Government, Trustee may foreclose this instrument by advertisement and sale of said property as provided by law, for cash or secured credit at the option of the Government, personal notice of which sale need not be served on Borrower; such sale may be adjourned from time to time without other notice than oral proclamation at the time and place appointed for such sale and correction made on the posted notices, and at such sale the Government and its agents may bid and purchase as a stranger and may pay the Government's share of the purchase price by crediting such amount on any debts of Borrower owing to or insured by the Government, in the order prescribed in paragraph (14); Trustee at his option may conduct such sale, without being personally present, through his delegate authorized by him for such purpose orally or in writing, and Trustee's execution of a conveyance of said property or any part thereof to any purchaser at foreclosure sale shall be conclusive evidence that the sale was conducted by Trustee personally or through his delegate duly authorized in accordance herewith;

(14) the proceeds of foreclosure sale, after being applied to the payment of costs and expenses incident to enforcing or complying with the provisions hereof, any prior liens required by law or a competent court to be so paid, and all indebtedness secured hereby, shall be applied in the following order to the payment of: (a) inferior liens of record required by law or a competent court to be so paid, (b) at the Government's option, any other indebtedness of Borrower owing to or insured by the Government, and (c) any balance to Borrower;

(15) all powers and agencies granted in this instrument are coupled with an interest and are irrevocable by death or otherwise; and the rights and remedies provided in this instrument are cumulative to remedies provided by law;

(16) as against the indebtedness hereby secured and to the extent permitted by law, Borrower hereby relinquishes all rights of homestead in said property and hereby waives all present and future valuation or appraisal laws and all exemptions of any kind to which Borrower may be entitled under the laws and constitution of the jurisdiction in which said property is situated;

(17) upon payment of all indebtedness hereby secured, the Government shall execute and deliver to Borrower at his above post office address a release and satisfaction hereof within 60 days after written demand by Borrower, and Borrower hereby waives the benefits of all laws requiring earlier execution or delivery of such release and satisfaction;

(18) this instrument shall be subject to the present regulations of the Farmers Home Administration, and to its future regulations not inconsistent with the express provisions hereof;

(19) notices given hereunder shall be sent by certified mail, unless otherwise required by law, addressed, until some other address is designated in a notice so given, in the case of the Government to Farmers Home Administration, United States Department of Agriculture, at Berkeley, California, and in the case of Borrower to him at his post office address stated above.
