SIXTH: The Beneficiary may without notice to, or consent of, Grantor extend the time of the payment of any indebtedness secured hereby to any successor in interest of the Grantor without discharging the Grantor from liability thereon. If the Grantor shall sell, convey or alienate said property or any part thereof, or any interest therein, or shall be divested of Grantor's title in any manner or way, whether voluntary or involuntary, any indebtedness or obligation secured hereby, irrespective of the maturity dates expressed in any note evidencing the same, at the option of the holder thereof, and without demand or notice, shall immediately become due and payable. If the Beneficiary holds any additional security for any obligation secured hereby, it may enforce the sale thereof, at its option, either before or after a sale that is made hereunder. In the event of default hereunder, the Trustee may, upon request by the Beneficiary, bring an action in any court of competent jurisdiction to foreclose this instrument as a mortgage or to enforce any of the covenants hereof. The Beneficiary may also bring an action to enforce the payment of any note or indebtedness secured hereby, without causing the Trustee to sell the property as herein provided, the said Grantor waiving any provision of law requiring that the security conveyed by the Grantor to the Trustee herein be sold prior to the commencement of any such action. The rights and remedies hereby granted shall not exclude any other rights or remedies granted herein, or by law, and all rights and remedies granted herein, or permitted by law, shall be concurrent and cumulative. If any action brought pursuant to the provisions hereof the plaintiff shall be entitled to a reasonable sum to be fixed by the court as attorney's fees expended by the plaintiff in the prosecution of said action.
