Section 1. Rights of mine, estate, or interest in land, including the right and power to mine, or to lease or otherwise dispose of the land, or to use the land for any purpose, shall be deemed to be a right of mine, estate, or interest in land, and shall be subject to the same rules and regulations as apply to other interests in land. (b) No person shall be entitled to a right of mine, estate, or interest in land, or to a lease or other disposition of land, unless he has first obtained a valid and subsisting right of mine, estate, or interest in land, or a lease or other disposition of land, from the person or persons who are entitled to grant such right, estate, or interest, or lease or other disposition of land. (c) No person shall be entitled to a right of mine, estate, or interest in land, or to a lease or other disposition of land, unless he has first obtained a valid and subsisting right of mine, estate, or interest in land, or a lease or other disposition of land, from the person or persons who are entitled to grant such right, estate, or interest, or lease or other disposition of land. (d) No person shall be entitled to a right of mine, estate, or interest in land, or to a lease or other disposition of land, unless he has first obtained a valid and subsisting right of mine, estate, or interest in land, or a lease or other disposition of land, from the person or persons who are entitled to grant such right, estate, or interest, or lease or other disposition of land. (e) No person shall be entitled to a right of mine, estate, or interest in land, or to a lease or other disposition of land, unless he has first obtained a valid and subsisting right of mine, estate, or interest in land, or a lease or other disposition of land, from the person or persons who are entitled to grant such right, estate, or interest, or lease or other disposition of land. (f) No person shall be entitled to a right of mine, estate, or interest in land, or to a lease or other disposition of land, unless he has first obtained a valid and subsisting right of mine, estate, or interest in land, or a lease or other disposition of land, from the person or persons who are entitled to grant such right, estate, or interest, or lease or other disposition of land. (g) No person shall be entitled to a right of mine, estate, or interest in land, or to a lease or other disposition of land, unless he has first obtained a valid and subsisting right of mine, estate, or interest in land, or a lease or other disposition of land, from the person or persons who are entitled to grant such right, estate, or interest, or lease or other disposition of land. (h) No person shall be entitled to a right of mine, estate, or interest in land, or to a lease or other disposition of land, unless he has first obtained a valid and subsisting right of mine, estate, or interest in land, or a lease or other disposition of land, from the person or persons who are entitled to grant such right, estate, or interest, or lease or other disposition of land. (i) No person shall be entitled to a right of mine, estate, or interest in land, or to a lease or other disposition of land, unless he has first obtained a valid and subsisting right of mine, estate, or interest in land, or a lease or other disposition of land, from the person or persons who are entitled to grant such right, estate, or interest, or lease or other disposition of land. (j) No person shall be entitled to a right of mine, estate, or interest in land, or to a lease or other disposition of land, unless he has first obtained a valid and subsisting right of mine, estate, or interest in land, or a lease or other disposition of land, from the person or persons who are entitled to grant such right, estate, or interest, or lease or other disposition of land. (k) No person shall be entitled to a right of mine, estate, or interest in land, or to a lease or other disposition of land, unless he has first obtained a valid and subsisting right of mine, estate, or interest in land, or a lease or other disposition of land, from the person or persons who are entitled to grant such right, estate, or interest, or lease or other disposition of land. (l) No person shall be entitled to a right of mine, estate, or interest in land, or to a lease or other disposition of land, unless he has first obtained a valid and subsisting right of mine, estate, or interest in land, or a lease or other disposition of land, from the person or persons who are entitled to grant such right, estate, or interest, or lease or other disposition of land. (m) No person shall be entitled to a right of mine, estate, or interest in land, or to a lease or other disposition of land, unless he has first obtained a valid and subsisting right of mine, estate, or interest in land, or a lease or other disposition of land, from the person or persons who are entitled to grant such right, estate, or interest, or lease or other disposition of land. (n) No person shall be entitled to a right of mine, estate, or interest in land, or to a lease or other disposition of land, unless he has first obtained a valid and subsisting right of mine, estate, or interest in land, or a lease or other disposition of land, from the person or persons who are entitled to grant such right, estate, or interest, or lease or other disposition of land. (o) No person shall be entitled to a right of mine, estate, or interest in land, or to a lease or other disposition of land, unless he has first obtained a valid and subsisting right of mine, estate, or interest in land, or a lease or other disposition of land, from the person or persons who are entitled to grant such right, estate, or interest, or lease or other disposition of land. (p) No person shall be entitled to a right of mine, estate, or interest in land, or to a lease or other disposition of land, unless he has first obtained a valid and subsisting right of mine, estate, or interest in land, or a lease or other disposition of land, from the person or persons who are entitled to grant such right, estate, or interest, or lease or other disposition of land. (q) No person shall be entitled to a right of mine, estate, or interest in land, or to a lease or other disposition of land, unless he has first obtained a valid and subsisting right of mine, estate, or interest in land, or a lease or other disposition of land, from the person or persons who are entitled to grant such right, estate, or interest, or lease or other disposition of land. (r) No person shall be entitled to a right of mine, estate, or interest in land, or to a lease or other disposition of land, unless he has first obtained a valid and subsisting right of mine, estate, or interest in land, or a lease or other disposition of land, from the person or persons who are entitled to grant such right, estate, or interest, or lease or other disposition of land. (s) No person shall be entitled to a right of mine, estate, or interest in land, or to a lease or other disposition of land, unless he has first obtained a valid and subsisting right of mine, estate, or interest in land, or a lease or other disposition of land, from the person or persons who are entitled to grant such right, estate, or interest, or lease or other disposition of land. (t) No person shall be entitled to a right of mine, estate, or interest in land, or to a lease or other disposition of land, unless he has first obtained a valid and subsisting right of mine, estate, or interest in land, or a lease or other disposition of land, from the person or persons who are entitled to grant such right, estate, or interest, or lease or other disposition of land. (u) No person shall be entitled to a right of mine, estate, or interest in land, or to a lease or other disposition of land, unless he has first obtained a valid and subsisting right of mine, estate, or interest in land, or a lease or other disposition of land, from the person or persons who are entitled to grant such right, estate, or interest, or lease or other disposition of land. (v) No person shall be entitled to a right of mine, estate, or interest in land, or to a lease or other disposition of land, unless he has first obtained a valid and subsisting right of mine, estate, or interest in land, or a lease or other disposition of land, from the person or persons who are entitled to grant such right, estate, or interest, or lease or other disposition of land. (w) No person shall be entitled to a right of mine, estate, or interest in land, or to a lease or other disposition of land, unless he has first obtained a valid and subsisting right of mine, estate, or interest in land, or a lease or other disposition of land, from the person or persons who are entitled to grant such right, estate, or interest, or lease or other disposition of land. (x) No person shall be entitled to a right of mine, estate, or interest in land, or to a lease or other disposition of land, unless he has first obtained a valid and subsisting right of mine, estate, or interest in land, or a lease or other disposition of land, from the person or persons who are entitled to grant such right, estate, or interest, or lease or other disposition of land.
