That it is further understood and agreed that the mortgagee, its agents or attorneys, shall have the right at all times to inspect and examine any property which may at any time be subject to the lien of the mortgage, for the purpose of ascertaining whether or not the security given is being lessened, diminished, depleted or impaired, and if such inspection or examination shall disclose, in the judgment of the mortgagee, that the security given or the property mortgaged is being lessened or impaired, such condition shall be deemed a breach of the covenants of the mortgage on the part of the mortgagor.

13. Covenant No. 13. That upon default of any of the terms, conditions, covenants or agreements of any chattel mortgage whereby livestock is mortgaged, it is agreed that the mortgagee may, without foreclosure and without legal proceedings and without any previous demand therefor, with the aid or assistance of any person or persons, enter upon the premises and ranges of the mortgagor or such place or places as any of the property subject to the lien of the mortgage is or may be found, and take, lead, drive or carry away the mortgaged property or any part thereof, and with or without notice to the mortgagor, at either public or private sale, sell and dispose of the same or so much thereof as may be necessary to pay the amount and sums secured by the mortgage, for the best price it can obtain, and out of the moneys arising therefrom it shall retain and pay the sum or sums then due or payable under the lien of the mortgage, and interest thereon, and all charges and expenses incurred in gathering, feeding, caring for, and selling the property or any part thereof, and any other expenses and charges incurred by the mortgagee, and all other sums secured by any of the terms of the mortgage, and any overplus shall be paid to the mortgagor. The mortgagee is expressly authorized and empowered, upon any such sale, to make and execute such bills of sale or other conveyances necessary to convey to the purchaser or purchasers thereof an absolute title in the property so sold. It shall not be necessary for the purchaser or purchasers at any such sale or sales purported to be made under the powers granted hereunder to inquire into or in any way be or become responsible for the actual existence of the contingency or contingencies upon which such sale or sales shall be made by the mortgagee, and title to the purchaser or purchasers of the property so sold shall be good and sufficient; and the mortgagor agrees that the decision of the mortgagee as to the actual existence of the contingency or contingencies upon which the sale or sales as aforesaid is or may be predicated shall be conclusive and binding upon the mortgagor.

14. Covenant No. 14. That it is expressly agreed and understood that in any sale of any of the property at any time subject to the lien of the mortgage, under the terms of the mortgage or any of the covenants adopted by reference, the property may, at the option of the mortgagee, be sold in one lot or parcel or in such other lots or parcels as may be designated by the mortgagee; and it is further covenanted and agreed that the mortgagee may become the purchaser of the property or any part thereof at any sale made under any of the terms of the mortgage, or upon foreclosure.

If default be made in payment of any sums, moneys, or indebtedness now or hereafter secured hereby, or any part thereof, or the interest thereon; or if the Mortgagor default in or fail to comply with or perform any of the covenants, conditions, or agreements herein mentioned or contained, or in case any representation herein made by the Mortgagor prove false in any respect, or in case of the actual or imputed insolvency of the Mortgagor, or, in case of material depreciation in the value of the property subject to the mortgage; or if, for any cause, the security afforded shall become inadequate, or if, at any time, the Mortgagee shall deem itself insecure, for any reason (the Mortgagee to be the sole judge), with respect to the payment of the sums secured hereby, or if any of the property subject to the lien hereof is attached, levied upon, or for any reason taken possession of or detained by any person other than the Mortgagee; then and in any of the events aforesaid, the Mortgagee shall have the right and power, and is hereby authorized at its option, personally, or by agent, to enter upon the property of the Mortgagor, or any other place or places where the property covered hereby, or any part thereof, is situate, and take possession of and remove the same or any part thereof, with or without legal process, and, in addition thereto, in all or any of the events aforesaid, whether possession of said property or any part thereof be or be not taken by the Mortgagee, the whole of the indebtedness hereby secured shall, at the option of the Mortgagee, become immediately due and payable without notice, although the time expressed therefor shall not have arrived; and the said Mortgagee shall, in any of the events aforesaid, have the right to proceed to foreclose this mortgage by suit or action, or by notice and sale, as provided by law or in any other lawful manner; in any of which foreclosure proceedings the mortgaged property may, at the option of the Mortgagee, be sold as a single parcel and as a whole, or in such order and such parcels less than the whole, as the Mortgagee may elect; and, in event of foreclosure by notice and sale, or by suit or action, the Mortgagee may retain from the proceeds of the sale in addition to all other proper costs, charges, and expenses, a reasonable attorney's fee, all of which shall constitute a lien on the property mortgaged. In case the proceeds from any foreclosure sale, judicial or otherwise, fail to satisfy this mortgage, costs, and expenses, including a reasonable attorney's fee and all costs and expenses incurred in taking and retaining possession of said property and in caring for the same pending sale, then said Mortgagor agrees to pay any deficiency. Said Mortgagee may become a purchaser the same as any other person at the foreclosure sale hereunder, free from any right of redemption whatsoever.

It is further agreed that, if suit be instituted for foreclosure hereof, a receiver may be appointed without notice to take possession of the property subject hereto pending said action, and any sale decreed therein, but until such time as possession is taken by the Mortgagee or by such receiver under the terms and conditions hereof, said Mortgagor may remain in the possession of all said property.

PROVIDED FURTHER, That all remedies herein specified shall be considered as optional with the Mortgagee, and cumulative, and not as a waiver of any other right or remedy which would otherwise exist in law or equity for the enforcement of this mortgage, or the collection of the indebtedness secured hereby.
