Dear Mr. Jensen:

In regards to your letter of September 28, 1979, I again state my position of September 27, 1979 and insist that it will stand.

I disagree that you send the payments directly to the Churchfields as your dealings are not with them. They are with me as stated in the contract dated November 16, 1978. As for your request for items of default, some of them were stated on the letter of September 27, 1979. Also you have repeatedly stalled and lied to me as to your performance on this whole deal.

I am returning your check #1640 dated September 28, 1979 for $1,000.00 you say I am entitled to. There is no agreement between us, and I consider that as your attempt to buy me. I am not bought. The deal terminated September 24, 1979.

Sincerely,

Harold D. Sorensen
