A. The promissory note evidencing the indebtedness secured hereby contains the following provision, which provision is set forth herein for purposes of placing said provision of record:

"This promissory note is secured by a Security Agreement of even date herewith, by a Deed of Trust encumbering certain real property located in the State of Nevada to Washoe Title Guaranty Company, as Trustee, and by a Deed of Trust encumbering certain real property located in the State of California to Western Title Insurance Company as Trustee. If the undersigned agree to or actually sell, convey, transfer, or dispose of any of the real property described in either Deed of Trust or any part of such property, or any interest in such property, without first obtaining the written consent of the holder of this note, then the entire balance of principal and accrued interest, at the option of the holder of this note, shall become immediately due and payable. Consent to one such transfer will not constitute a waiver of the right to require consent to future or successive transfers; provided, however, that the undersigned shall be entitled to transfer interests in such property between the undersigned or to the children or grandchildren or the spouses of the children of the undersigned (or to trusts for the exclusive benefit of the children or grandchildren of the undersigned) on condition that the undersigned at all times retain not less than 51 percent of the interest currently held by the undersigned in and to all of the real property covered by each of said Deeds of Trust."

In the event that Trustor fails to perform the covenants and agreements set forth in paragraphs B, C, and D of this Deed of Trust, such failure shall constitute a default under this Deed of Trust.
