Procedure

A geochemical rock and soil sampling survey was complete at geologically significant locations and on a grid laid out over the Angelo Belli claim block. This survey consisted of the collection, assaying, statistical analysis, interpretation and plotting soil samples and the assay results. A total of 44 samples were collected. Grid samples were taken at stations spaced at 100 feet along N-S survey lines 400 feet apart. Elements included in this study are Au, Ag, Cu, Pb, Zn, Sb, Hg, As, and Tl. This survey was done to directly measure changes in geochemistry of rock units and mineralized horizons.
