IT IS FURTHER AGREED:

1. That Grantee, its successors and assigns, shall have at all times ingress and egress to the above-described land for the purpose of constructing, repairing, renewing, altering, changing, patrolling and operating said communications systems.

2. That Grantee, its successors and assigns, shall be responsible for any damage to personal property or improvements, suffered by Grantor, by reason of construction, maintenance, repair or performance of any other rights herein set forth.

3. That Grantee, its successors and assigns, will at all times save and hold harmless the Grantor, its heirs, successors and assigns, of any and all loss, damage or liability it may suffer or sustain by reason of any injury or damage to any person or property caused by the negligent construction, maintenance, operation of said communications systems by Grantee and from claims of any third parties resulting from Grantee's exercise of its rights herein granted.

4. That Grantor, its successors and assigns, will at all times save and hold harmless the Grantee, its heirs, successors and assigns, of damage to the communications system caused by the negligent exercise by Grantor of rights reserved herein.

5. In the event Grantor determines at any time and from time to time it is necessary to relocate any portion of the communication system or appurtenances, in order to safely develop or mine minerals owned by Grantor on property included in or adjacent to the property described herein, then on ninety (90) days notice, Grantee agrees to relocate said cable and appurtenant facilities, at cost to Grantee, to a location satisfactory to Grantor, provided that if the new location is on lands owned or controlled by Grantor or an affiliate of Grantor, hereinafter called "Grantor lands", then the necessary easement therefore shall be granted to Grantee without additional consideration. Nothing in this or the following provision shall require Grantor to purchase any lands to provide alternative easements for the benefit of Grantee.

Subject to the above described right to require relocation of the communication system, Grantor shall not erect or construct, nor permit to be erected or constructed any building or structure, nor permit any activity which is inconsistent with Grantee's use of the Easement.

6. Grantee, its successors and assigns, shall have the right to remove or clear any and all buildings, structures, combustible materials, trees, brush, debris, or any other obstruction from said right of way, which in the judgment of Grantee may interfere
