for or the year ending August 31, 1999, and that such expenditures were made by, for and at the expense of Asahington Mining Corporation for the account of itself and for the owners of the above claims, for the purpose of holding said claims. This work consisted of continuing improvements on the Jeep road leading up to the trail leading up to the Silver Shaft located on OP 19. This road is going through claim JD 6 and the access road leading up to Grassy Canyon rocky northerly ridge which is the start of Jeep road needed minor improvements consisting of removal of boulders and rocks as well as filling in small washes on both claim groups. Reconnaissance sampling and mapping of old workings was also accomplished. Assaying was conducted by SVL Analitical at Box 929, Kellogg, ID. The work was intermittently accomplished between September 14, 1998 and August 31, 1999 by Peter Laczay, geologist.
