1. Designations. ANNA M. TEICHERT is designated as attorney-in-fact for the principal. If for any reason ANNA M. TEICHERT is unable or unwilling to act as attorney-in-fact, SEIGFRIED A. TEICHERT is designated as alternate attorney-in-fact for the principal.

3. Powers. The attorney-in-fact, as fiduciary, shall have all powers of an absolute owner over the assets and liabilities of the principal, whether located within or without the State of Washington and power to contract for the principal. With court approval the attorney-in-fact shall have the power to revoke or change any estate plan or testamentary document executed by the principal. In addition to the powers listed above, the attorney-in-fact shall have the power:

(c) Checks and Notes. To sign, endorse, sell, discount, deliver and/or deposit checks, drafts, notes and negotiable or nonnegotiable instruments, including any payments to the principal drawn on the Treasury of the United States or the State of Washington or any other state or governmental entity, and to accept drafts;

(d) Investments. To retain any property in the hands of the attorney-in-fact in the form in which it was received; and to make investments and changes of investments in such securities, including common and preferred stocks of corporations or other property, real or personal, as the principal's attorney-in-fact may deem prudent;

(e) Debts. To pay debts and other obligations;

(o) Tax Returns. To sign and file all city, county, state, federal and other governmental or quasi-governmental tax returns or reports, including income, gift, sales, business, and property tax returns or reports of every kind whatsoever; to execute waivers, extension agreements, settlement agreements and closing agreements with respect to those returns and to appear for the principal, in person or by attorney, and represent principal before the United States Treasury Department or the Washington Department of Revenue or the taxing authority of any other state or governmental entity;

The principal intends to grant the above-stated power to make gifts irrespective of any provision of Title 11 of the Revised Code of Washington (including, but not limited to, RCW 11.95.100 and 11.95.110) that would otherwise restrict the power of an attorney-in-fact to make gifts to himself or herself. The attorney-in-fact shall not breach any fiduciary duty to the principal by reason of gifts made (including to himself or herself) or withheld in good faith.

(v) Business Interests. To continue as a going concern any business interest owned by the principal, either individually or as a co-partner;

4. Purposes. The attorney-in-fact shall have full powers to provide for the support, maintenance, emergencies and necessities for the incapacitated principal.

5. Duration. The durable power of attorney becomes effective as provided in paragraph 6 and shall remain in effect until revoked or terminated under paragraph 7 or 8, notwithstanding any uncertainty as to whether the principal is dead or alive.

6. Effectiveness. This power of attorney shall be effective immediately and shall not be affected by the incapacity of the principal.

7. Revocation. This power of attorney may be revoked, suspended or terminated in writing by the principal with written notice to the designated attorney-in-fact. In addition, if this power of attorney has been recorded, the written instrument of revocation shall be recorded in the office of the recorder or auditor of any county in which the power of attorney is recorded.

8. Termination.

(a) By Appointment of Guardian. The appointment of a guardian of the estate of the principal vests in the guardian, with court approval, the power to revoke, suspend or terminate this power of attorney. The appointment of a guardian of the person only does not empower the guardian to revoke, suspend or terminate this power of attorney.

(b) By Death of Principal. The death of the principal shall be deemed to revoke this power of attorney upon actual knowledge or actual notice being received by the attorney-in-fact.

9. Accounting. The attorney-in-fact shall be required to account to any subsequently appointed personal representative.

10. Reliance. Any person dealing with the attorney-in-fact shall be entitled to rely upon this power of attorney so long as such person has received no actual knowledge or actual notice of any revocation, suspension or termination of the power of attorney by death or otherwise at the time of any act taken pursuant to this power of attorney. Any action so taken, unless otherwise invalid or unenforceable, shall be binding on the heirs, devisees, legatees or personal representatives of the principal.

13. Definition. The term "attorney-in-fact" as used herein shall be deemed to mean "co-attorneys-in-fact" or "successor attorney-in-fact" when such are functioning as the attorney-in-fact appointed by this document.

14. Reimbursement. The attorney-in-fact shall be entitled to reimbursement for all reasonable costs and expenses incurred on the principal's behalf in exercising the powers granted herein.

This power of attorney is signed this 21st day of November, 1996, to become effective as provided in paragraph 6.
