RE: APN 07-394-07 (Divorce Decree)

Dear Lisa;

In processing deed transfers from the Eureka County Recorder's office we have found an error in your real property located at 583 El Toro in Diamond Valley. The Quitclaim Deed recorded reads Grantor, Lisa A. Whelchel to Grantee, Lisa A. Whelchel; when in-fact we believe that the deed should read Grantor, P.J. Whelchel to Grantee, Lisa A. Whelchel. Because, you were in fact granted the property through the divorce decree, which follows the Quit Claim Deed.

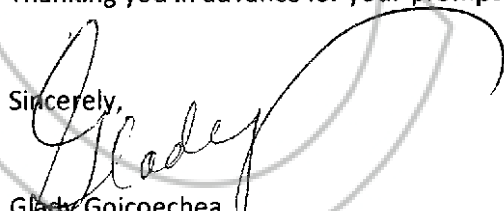

To correct this error you must have a Corrected Quitclaim Deed recorded (in the Eureka County Recorder's office) stating P. J. Whelchel as the Grantor and you as the Grantee. P.J. will be responsible for having his signature notarized and either of you can have it recorded. Until this correction is made P.J.'s name will remain on the property.

Also, do you have the mobile home title? Is it in both names? You should also remove P.J. from that legal document as well. On a mobile home title both the seller and buyer's signatures must be notarized. You then need to bring the properly signed title to our office along with a check made to: Manufactured Housing Division for $40.00. We will do the necessary transfer in our records and forward the title to Las Vegas for processing into your name alone. It takes approximately 4-6 weeks for this process. At that time, with the corrected deed recorded the land and home will be both be in your name alone. This is your intent, correct?

Should you have any questions in regards to this letter, please feel free to contact us immediately.

Thanking you in advance for your prompt attention to correcting this error.

Sincerely,

Gladys Goicoechea
